

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, JUNE 15, 1901.

No. 24

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Timerhoff's poultry powder cures chicken cholera.

The annex to the county jail will be finished about July 1.

Eastman's kodaks and photo supplies at Eastern prices at Babbitts'.

The best pure sap maple syrup to be found at P. R. Weatherford & Co.'s.

H. A. Pease, editor of the Holbrook Argus, was a Flagstaff visitor Monday.

P. R. Weatherford & Co., have just received a car of the celebrated Club House Flour.

Clark Hitt and wife, who have been spending the past two months in Indiana and Kansas, returned here Sunday.

Rev. Father Immel of Hillsboro, New Mexico, is now taking osteopathic treatment of Dr. Hart and is improving rapidly.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

Wanted—Teams to haul logs and lumber. For particulars address the J. M. Dennis Lumber Company, Rhoades, Arizona.

Prof. W. H. Russell, principal of the the Flagstaff public schools, accompanied by his family, left Monday for California, where they will spend the summer.

J. E. De Rosear, manager of the Postal Telegraph Company here, was a passenger on No. 8 which collided with the freight train near Challenger on Thursday morning.

Mrs. H. R. Davis returned from Colorado Springs Monday. She was accompanied by Roy and Clarence Vining, who will spend the summer with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoxworth.

Heeding the warning of the weather bureau, two bobos prepared for the cold wave by appropriating some clothing belonging to an employe of Hugh Campbell. Judge Quinlan took the thieves out of the cold for thirty days.

Brannen's pharmacy has been in the possession of the carpenters and painters this week, who under the personal supervision of Manager Ruffin are causing a remarkable transformation. New bottles, the only ones of the kind in the territory, and an elegant prescription case is being added.

A letter received by Dr. Manning from an old friend in El Paso reports the border city booming; yet for fourteen years it was dormant. A new class of business men went there and immediately it commenced to prosper. There are towns in Arizona which need new blood infused into their trade arteries.

The new time card on the Santa Fe Pacific went into effect Sunday, June 9. The passenger trains are due at this place as follows: West bound—No. 1, at 11:25 a. m.; No. 7, the mail train, at 10:30 a. m.; No. 3, the "flyer," at 3:05 p. m. Mondays and Thursdays. East bound—No. 2, the mail train, at 8:42 p. m.; No. 8, at 6:40 a. m.; No. 4, the "flyer," at 1:25 p. m. Tuesdays and Fridays.

School supplies of all kinds at Timerhoff's.

C. H. Vary has moved his bicycle repair shop to the Bank Hotel.

It keeps them well and makes them lay—Timerhoff's poultry powder.

Colored Cook Wanted—At Maud Cunningham's; wages $25 a month.

When you want the best goods for the least money buy of P. R. Weatherford & Co.

John Woody has disposed of his cattle and ranch interests here to Vall & Black, and has gone to Fresno, Cal., to live.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

S. S. Acker was in from Apache Maid ranch this week. He reports considerable damage to crops by frosts during the month.

Dr. D. J. Brannen is having a new floor put in his drugstore, his customers having worn the old floor out. D. Wallace is doing the work.

I. B. Hanna, superintendent of the forest reserves of New Mexico and Arizona, and who is on an official tour of the various reserves, spent yesterday here.

Chas. Procknow, the engineer of the Arizona Lumber & Timber company left Thursday on a month's vacation which he will spend in Southern California.

Another Mexican wedding is on the tapis. Bans were announced at the Church of the Nativity for the nuptials of Senor Juan Rodriguez and Senorita Padilla.

F. W. Hazen of Pasadena finds the change from the tropical heat of California to the cool atmosphere of Flagstaff agreeable.

The New Bank hotel has been refurnished and is now open to the public. Mrs. F. T. McMillan is the new manager, and will for the present run the hotel on the European plan.

The G. A. R. encampment of Arizona will be held at Williams next week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. An excursion to the Grand Canyon of Arizona is one of the attractions to those who attend.

Miss Lulu Hunter, who has been selected by the Normal board of trustees as teacher of the training school, left Monday for Chicago, where she will take a course in normal work pertaining to her branch of teaching at the Chicago University.

J. C. Martin, editor of the Journal-Miner of Prescott, spent Tuesday and Wednesday here. Mr. Martin says the mining industry in Yavapai county is prospering as never before. Mining men are seeking investment in that county and properties are changing hands.

Tomorrow, Sunday, the reopening of the Methodist church will take place as follows: Sunday school at 9:45, preaching at 11:00 a. m., Junior League at 4:00 p. m., Epworth League in union service with the Christian Endeavor at 7:00 p. m., and at 8:00 p. m. a union platform meeting will be held. Addresses by Rev. Geo. Logie, Professor Taylor, F. C. Ried and J. H. Henry, pastor. A general invitation extended to all.

Typewriter papers in various weights at Timerhoff's.

Miss Katherine Edwards left Monday for Santa Ana, Cal.

See prices on shoes at Weatherford & Co., before buying elsewhere.

One hundred in the shade at Needles and 65 at Flagstaff is quite a difference.

If you want a good trunk for a small amount of money call on P. R. Weatherford & Co.

Some Navajo blankets of beautiful patterns and artistic coloring are on exhibition in the office of the Weatherford.

Mrs. Jos. Johnston of Williams is here this week attending the commencement exercises at the Northern Normal.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

Miss Anna Miller, teacher in our public schools, left Monday for her home in Tempe, where she will spend her vacation.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

Word was received by Manager De Rosear that the postal cable office in this city would henceforth transact a money order business.

P. H. Murphy, who has been spending the past two years here for the benefit of his health, returned to his home in Illinois Saturday.

Several inches of snow fell on the San Francisco peaks Thursday, and it was cold enough in the valleys to form ice on the water Friday morning.

Call at the Pioneer Drug Store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

Mrs. Campbell of Prescott, mother of Miss Alice Campbell, who is one of the Normal graduates, is spending the week here, the guest of Mrs. E. L. Renoe.

The sweet singer from Mexico gave an impromptu concert at the city jail Thursday night. Marshal Bayless officiated as musical director. Most of the numbers were pitched in "high C."

U. S. Deputy Marshal W. F. Smullen, of Tucson, was here this week summoning grand jurors and witnesses for the June term of the United States court which will be held in Prescott next week. Eleven grand jurors was the quota of Flagstaff.

Rev. T. C. Moffett has accepted the charge of the mission of the Presbyterian church for Arizona. Rev. Moffett will have his headquarters at Prescott, although he will be in the mission field the greater part of his time. Under the labors of Rev. Moffett the number of Presbyterian churches throughout the territory will no doubt largely increase.

Major J. H. McClintock, president of the Rough Riders' Association, has issued an order changing the date of the third annual reunion of the Rough Riders at Colorado Springs from June 24 and 25 to August 1 and 3. The change in date was made at the request of the citizens of Colorado Springs, who desire to make the reunion a feature of the quarter centennial of Colorado's admission to the Union.

Buy a Brownie kodak, $1, at Babbitt Bros.

C. H. Peck of Tucson is at the Hotel Weatherford.

A line of fine writing tablets and papreties at Timerhoff's.

Dr. W. S. Robinson has moved his office to rooms over the postoffice.

For Sale—Large hotel range with large pressure boiler and fixtures. Apply at this office.

The advertisement of Dr. George B. Pratt, the leading oculist of Arizona, appears in this issue.

Frank Beasley returned Tuesday from the Salt River valley, having been absent since December last.

Gus Hockmyer registered at the Weatherford, "1903" which means St. Louis as his place of residence.

R. B. Burns, chief engineer of the Santa Fe Pacific, enjoyed the hospitality of the Weatherford during the week.

J. T. Ramsey of Chicago, said at the Weatherford that there were other windy cities besides those located on the shores of the great lakes.

Miss Drew, Miss H. Drew and Miss Young, all of St. Louis, have rented a cottage and will spend the summer in Flagstaff instead of at the sea shore.

H. J. Guckenberger, who has been in Flagstaff for several months enjoying the ozone of the pine-clad hills, returned to Los Angeles Wednesday much improved in health.

The game of baseball between the Williams and Flagstaff nines at Williams last Sunday attracted about fifty Flagstaffites. The game was won by the Williams players, the score being 23 to 12.

Dr. L. C. O'Donnell, L. W. Quinlan, R. C. Edmundson, F. H. Friessell, Mrs. Murray, Misses Marshall, Murray, Metz and Blaze left Wednesday for a three weeks' outing at the Thomas ranch on Oak Creek.

For Rent—On July 1, 1901, brick building on the corner of Railroad avenue and Leroux street. Good frost-proof cellar 25x60 feet, store room 25x60 feet, second story 25x60 feet. Water and sewer connections. Best location in town. For particulars apply to Julius Aubineau, Flagstaff, Arizona.

Walter Elliott, who formerly lived here, was convicted of highway robbery last week at Flagstaff, Arizona, and was sentenced to six years' hard labor in the territorial penitentiary at Yuma. Elliott escaped during a jail break last winter, but was captured in Oklahoma and taken back for trial. The young man has plenty of friends who do not believe him guilty and they were surprised at his conviction.—Albuquerque Citizen.

On the morning of the 7th inst Frank Ostrand cut his throat on No. 8 passenger train of the Santa Fe Pacific at this place. The wound inflicted was a most ghastly one. The head was almost entirely severed from the body. The jury impaneled by Judge Mahoney rendered a verdict to the effect that he was temporarily insane. He purchased a ticket for Gallup, N. M., went into the car, took his seat, pulled out a razor and committed the deed. Papers found on him showed that he was a member of the miners' union, No. 64, at Victor, Colo.—Winslow Mail.